

Activities Directors' Quarterly

for
Alzheimer's & Other Dementia Patients[®]

Table of contents

Letter to the editor—Pet therapy is more than meets the eye3

Commentary—Please don't play for me5
Richard Taylor, PhD

ADQ inservice—The daily life of an activities director8
Thaya Eggleston Gilmore, PhD, CN, CNT

ADQ proven activities23

ADQ featured lesson plan26

SEASONAL PLANNER — Special Pullout Section
Activities to celebrate the season24, 25

VIDEO REVIEW
Sundowning46
Reviewed by Deborah L. Clarke

ALL FUNCTIONING LEVELS

Why recreation therapy is so essential for nursing home residents with Alzheimer's-type dementia13
Andrea S. Schreiner, PhD, MHA, BSN
Eiko Yamamoto, RN, MS
Hisako Shiotani, RN, PhD

The Core + Balance Model of Activities: A new approach to fostering elders' meaningful activity engagement27
Judith E. Voelkl, PhD, CTRS
Amy Parks, BA, MSc

MID- TO HIGH-FUNCTIONING

Brain fitness for older adults with dementia36
Suzanne Fitzsimmons, MS, ARNP

MID-FUNCTIONING

Relaxation and dementia: An ideal program for reducing anxiety41
Linda L. Buettner, PhD, CTRS
Suzanne Fitzsimmons, MS, ARNP

Change as a natural occurrence